

Integrate a Sharepoint Site into Teams as a Homepage

If you wish to better aggregate and disseminate information within an organization, it is best to integrate as much as possible into existing systems.

Microsoft Teams made a strong advance over the past year and is today a starting place for users. Every day, everyone starts up their computer and automatically logs into Microsoft Teams.

In this blog, I explain how you can integrate your internal information via SharePoint can integrate into Microsoft Teams.

This blog post belongs to the Microsoft SharePoint training series

#1 Preparing for a SharePoint test environment, how to create a Office 365 tenant ?

#2 Tutorial: How to create a communication site in sharepoint online ?

#3 Integrate a SharePointsite in Microsoft Teams tab as start page

#4 Apply default templates to SharePoint Online - Template chooser

#5 How To Move Or Copy Files In SharePoint Or Microsoft Teams

1. Open the desired SharePoint Site

Copy the URL of your SharePoint site from the browser.

2image-42-1024x204.webp

2. Open Microsoft Teams

Select the desired channel - press + at the top.

3image-43-1024x634.webp

3. Select SharePoint in Microsoft Teams

Press the SharePoint icon/tab.

4image-44-1024x636.webp

4. Copy or select the SharePoint page URL

5image-45-1024x637.webp

5. Your SharePoint site is now available to everyone in Microsoft Teams!

6image-46-1024x665.webp

Also read

Sharing options are grayed out when sharing from Microsoft Teams, SharePoint or OneDrive

Tutorial: How to create a page in Microsoft SharePoint Online ?

Apply default templates to SharePoint Online - Template chooser

Tutorial: How to create a communication site in SharePoint Online ?

How to rename teams-channel and corresponding SharePoint-folder name at the same time

Original Article

Revision #1

Created 2023-11-10 05:21:36 UTC by Ryan

Updated 2025-02-12 01:12:45 UTC by Ryan